Fireplaces and Surrounds - Fine Details

Fireplaces and Surrounds

Choosing the right fireplace for your home can be a complete maze. Our extensive knowledge of how previous architects used different designs and materials throughout a period home can help you decide on a range of styles that is just right for each room in the house.

We reclaim and restore original antique fireplaces in marble, cast iron and timber including elegant carved Georgian fireplaces exquisite French marble surrounds elaborate Victorian and Edwardian distinctive Art Nouveau 1930's Art Deco

All fully restored by our experts to their original splendour.

Where previous timber surrounds have been destroyed our craftsmen can reproduce magnificent copies of the original.
